DEVOLUTION

SAMATHA ROBINSON
shot by GEORGE DIMITRIV

The notion that species can revert into more primitive forms. The beauty of washing away your humanity to become a vulnerable, delicate and pure creature in a harsh world. This was the basis for this piece.

GEORGE DIMITROV

George is a traveler, explorer, always looking for new experiences. He likes to take beautiful, sexy, and provocative pictures while always respecting the person being photographed. He approaches his photographs from a point of view where the model is put on a pedestal, never from a place of objectification. He approaches each shoot with a as a new beginning vs trying to use some formulaic approach. His goal for every shoot is to create an atmosphere where the model is comfortable to let herself go and express herself fully without reservation.

SAMANTHA ROBINSON

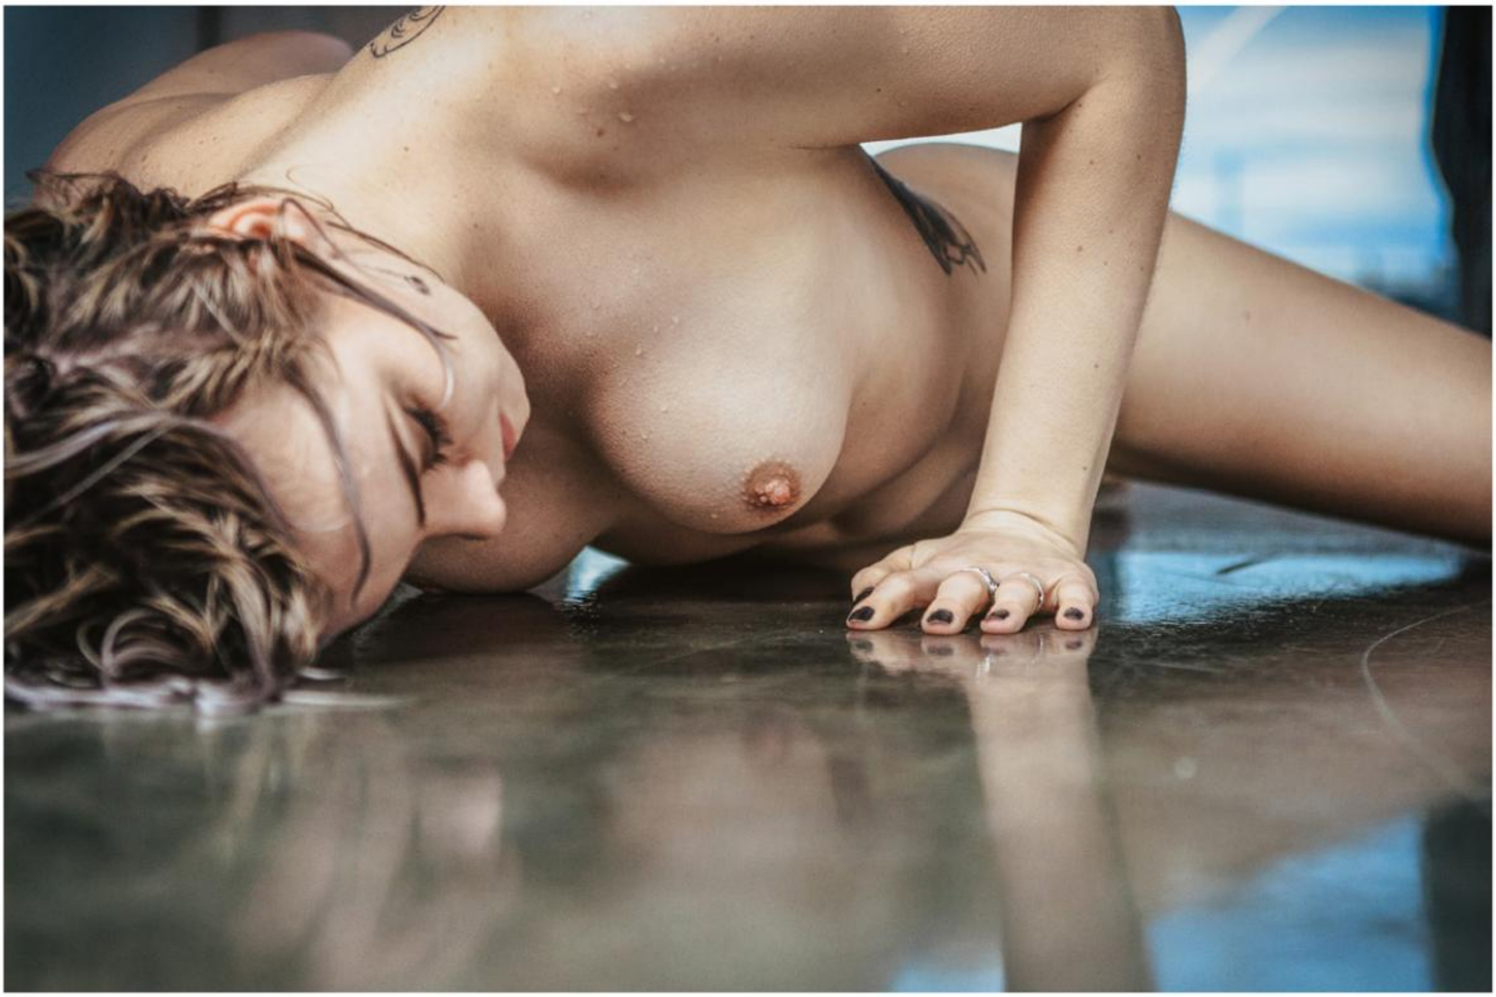

Featured model Samantha, age 25, collaborates with like minded fine art photographers to create pieces which not only place the female body on the highest pedestal of beauty and acceptance, but which present a story or theme of intrigue for the viewer.
Samantha first started modelling in the U.K. in 2009, whilst living in Canterbury. In 2013, on the Isle of Wight, she was scouted for the British Heart Foundation 2014 implied nude calendar which was her starting point for nudes and fine art. When she moved to Calgary in 2014 she began meeting with local fine art photographers who shared her affinity for creating art which would intrigue audiences and explore the beauty of the female form without over sexualizing it or making it meretricious.
This particular set was a collaboration with George Dimitrov. It was created with a sense of stripping or washing away outer layers of sexuality to find a deeper, more natural animalistic desire.

DEATH WISH

ESHA MARIE

"Hi VOLO Readers!

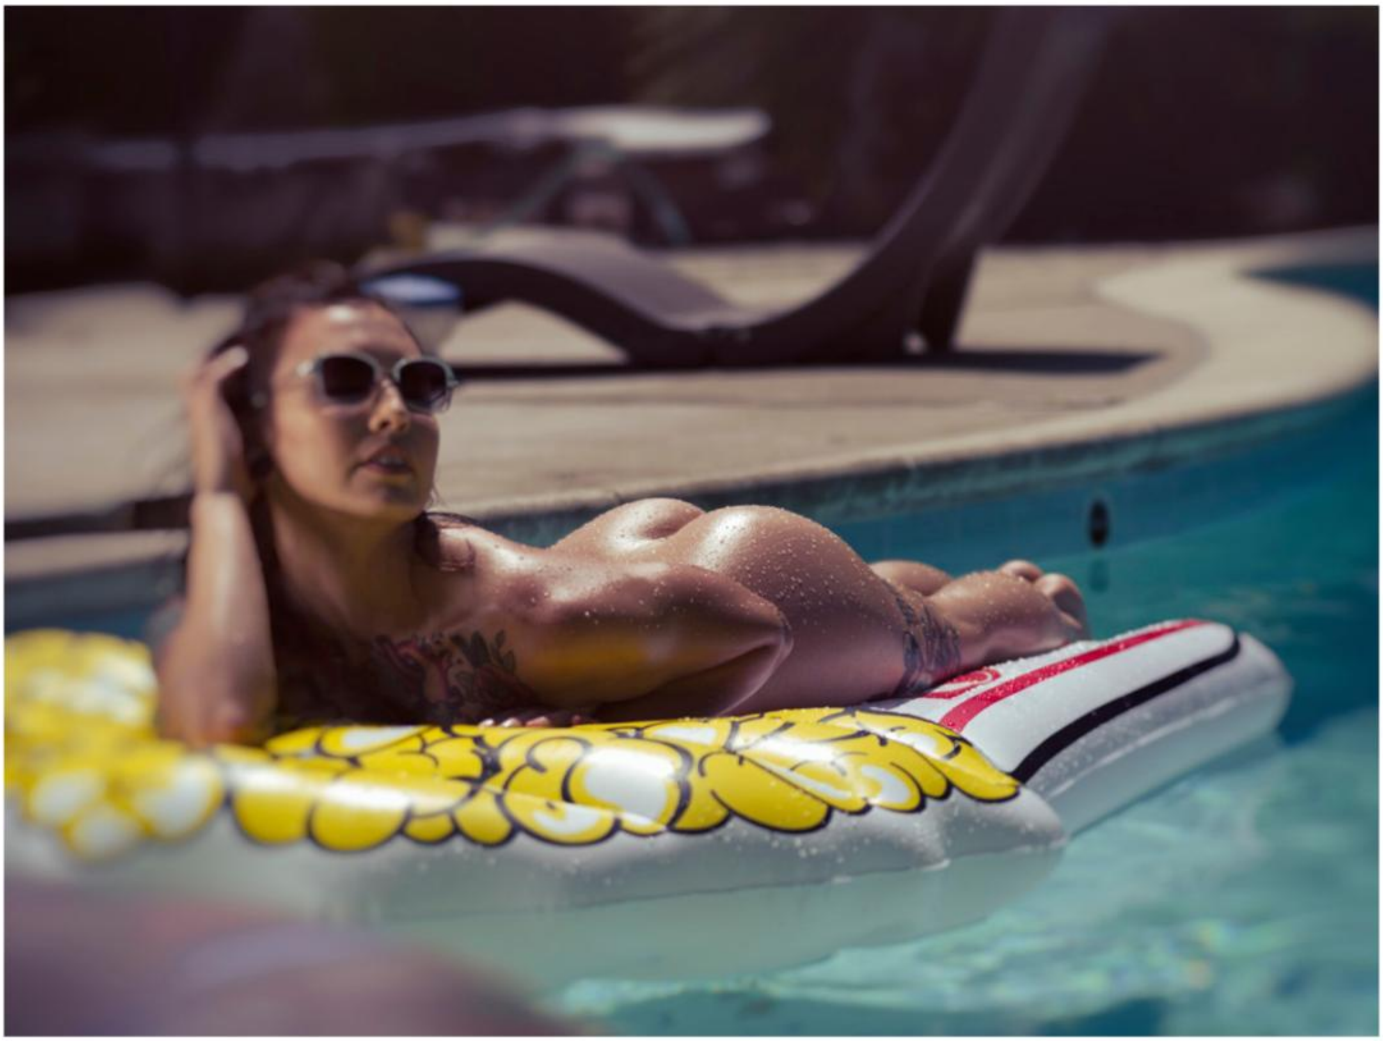

I am Esha Marie. I live in the San Francisco Bay Area with my two bunnies, Bunz and Scraggles and my little white dog Sleaze. I began my modeling journey in 2009 and what a wild ride it's been! Ever since I began this lifestyle, I can tell you that I have had the most exciting and challenging adventures.

For me modeling opened up a world of freedom, creativity and expression. I'm very proud of myself and all the progress I have made.
I am confident in the progression that I am making and am excited to see what the modeling world has to bring me in the years to come.
What you guys may not know about me, is that I am also the Casting Director for VOLO Magazine and the original VOLO Vixen.

XOXO – Esha"

KAYLEEN SCULLY

shot by DERRICK BIAS

We went to the other side of the sea, away from the pretty white sandy beach, known as the “sound side” or “bay side”. It provided a much more natural look and feel to meet the requirements for our shoot.

DERRICK BIAS

"I am Derrick Bias. I stepped into the world of photography back in 2007. I was in the military and deployed overseas. I decided to buy a small compact digital camera just to shoot photographs of random things to send back home. Everyday when I had some down time, I would go out and shoot images of different things around the base. A fellow soldier noticed that I would always shoot images and told me about photoshop. Back then, I wasn't editing the images. Just shooting jpg and uploading them. I started messing around with photoshop, and like every new photographer, was completely overwhelmed. But, I didn't stop. I just kept at it. It then became a thing of, "I want to take a picture to see what I can do with it in photoshop" deal. Eventually, I started getting better and better.

Years later and back in the stated, I became more curious about the actual art of photography. So, I hit the internet to learn as much as I could. That's when I first heard about DSLRs. SO, I took my curiosity out to Best Buy to get some hands on. There, I decided to purchase my 1st DSLR, and instantly became hooked. Today, I've shot thousands upon thousands of images. Exciting doesn't even equate to the joy I feel when I press the shutter. From landscapes to portraits, macro to wildlife, I've shot a very wide range of genres.."

A SECRET WORLD

LIV shot by PERRY JULIEN

A secret world, a place one can express themselves in any way they dream. The underwater realm is the happy place that Liv comes alive, letting her fantasies become a reality. This environment is both sensual and empowering ; a magical playground where complete freedom exists.

Just breathe

PERRY JULIEN

The passion and energy projected by his subjects and the surroundings that he photographs them is what inspires the images Perry Julien captures through his camera.

From the raw excitement of live concerts and festivals to the tranquility of the art of yoga to the palpable humanity of strangers on the street to the mysticalness of artistic nude photography, Julien captures moments that blend the margins between fantasy and reality.

As an artist, Julien is drawn to the spontaneity and immediacy of the photographic image. His work has been described as "photographs that tell a story, yet leave the viewer with unanswered questions and wanting to know more."

Although nationally recognized for his music performance photography, Julien is equally passionate about creating images across all genres. Alternating roles of participant and voyeur, provocateur and observer - his art pushes the boundaries of photographic artistry without being defined by any one style.

LIV

Hello! My names Liv. I am 20 years old and I've grown up in the southeast. This loud, outgoing exterior of mine shelters a very deep, thoughtful person. High energy and very outgo-ing, working in front of the camera comes quite natural for me. There's always more to learn! I absolutely love traveling, meeting new people and seeing new places. I have never done well being stagnant; traveling gives me the outlet for a lot of inspiration that I need for modeling and to grow as a person. I hope to continue on in this path I've paved, and see where life takes me.

HOLLYWOOD GLAM

TYLER-JANE LUMSDEN shot by PHIL INGRAM

The aim of this collaboration and shoot was to produce images similar in style to those of George Hurrell, considered to be the master of Hollywood glamour photography of the 1930's, 40's and 50's.

PHIL INGRAM

“Bob Dylan once said that if you are always in a state of “becoming” you will be okay. This is the credence which I have tried to follow with my photography – forever learning and experimenting.

I did my “apprenticeship” as a 14 year old in the 1960’s with a hand-me-down Voigtlander Bessa, a folding bellows camera from the 1930’s with the mechanics built into the lens. This was when I got my love of portraits – by photographing family and friends. I am now retired from IT and am a part time professional photographer dabbling in portraits for families, actors and models plus art/nude and experimental genres. I particularly like combining the art/nude genre with the experimental aspects of photography, especially playing with light. In this regard I consider that I am always in a state of “becoming” as I use different lighting techniques to highlight the beauty of the female form.”

AMANDA LEE shot by WILL HAUBERT
makeup by MIA DARLING

Amanda is an accomplished model whose tattoos add texture and interest to this shoot. From the serenity on Amanda's face to her finely chiseled form to her graceful poses to the water droplets hugging her breasts to the motion of the falls thundering about her, these images display the nude female as strong and powerful and delectably beautiful.

WILL HAUBERT

Will Haubert is a semi-professional photographer hailing from Arlington, Virginia. For a third of a century, he practiced law for the U.S. Government. Says Will: "I loved my law practice and I loved my colleagues. But I had creative and artistic interests that I loved even more – and those urges ultimately led me to retire to pursue photography." His transition consisted of three hours – he left his job at 4 pm, took the subway home, and went to his first photo club meeting at 7. Started clicking his shutter the next day and has never looked back.

Will cut his teeth on landscape and nature photography. Along the way, he has won numerous competitions and awards at the local, regional, and national level and was the overall "Versatile Photographer of the Year" for 2009 in the prestigious Northern Virginia Photographic Society.

In 2011, Will discovered his passion for portraiture: "I view portraiture as aspirational, as distinct from representational. Representational imagery is photojournalism – with all of its attendant constraints and responsibilities. In contrast, a portrait is about a person's soul and self-image. It's not about who you are with all your flaws and faults – it's about who you think you are and who you want to be. It's how you want the world to see you!"

Will's photography ranges from fashion to fetish – mild to wild: "My repertoire includes fashion, glamor, fetish, erotic, art nudes, pin-up, headshots, story-telling, and anything else creative people can imagine! I truly love women and love to portray their beauty. Beauty radiates from the soul -- and that's what I seek in my images. If I do it right, a woman's inner beauty will reveal itself to the lens – and to the viewer's eye."
